The festival 12 Points in 51 Heineken Jazz Festival

The festival 12 Points, based in Dublin, dedicated to the discovery and promotion of young talents of European jazz, will celebrate its tenth edition in San Sebastian between 20 and 23 July 2016, coinciding with the Heineken Jazz Festival, to be held between 20 and 25 July.

12 Points spent ten years dedicated to be a platform for new jazz musicians. Odd years is held in the Irish capital and even years in different European cities.

Twelve bands from twelve different European countries offered in twelve different performances Guipuzcoan capital, share jam sessions with local bands and participate in the seminar with Jazz Futures programmers and critics to discuss the future of music.

The registration period for groups that want to participate in the festival remains open and groups interested in participating must register before January 30, 2016 on the web www.12points.ie. So far no Spanish group has been selected to take part in this initiative along its almost ten years of existence.

This is the only activity related to jazz that is scheduled to be held within the framework of San Sebastián 2016 European Capital of Culture.
